How Do I Live

Diane Warren

"Bunny Back In The Box Version" ad-libs in italics

How do I get through one night without you?
If I had to live without you
What kind of life would that be?
Oh and I - I need you in my arms
Need you to hold
You're my world, my heart, my soul
If you ever leave
Baby that would take away everything
Good in my life

Without you there'd be no sun in my sky
There'd be no love in my life
There'd be no world left for me
Oh and I - baby I don't know what I would do
I'd be lost if I lost you
If you ever leave
Baby that would take away everything
That's real in my life

And tell me now - How do I live without you
I want to know - How do I breathe without you
If you ever go - How will I ever, ever survive?

*Nick Smalley on guitar, ladies and gentlemen!
Yeah! Play that shit! Mmm!*

*I hear ya, I hear you in here, in my heart!
Mmm, so good on my eardrums!
Yeah! You got that Telecaster twang
Twangin' into my soul!
Alright now, let's bring it back here, now!
I need somethin' with a little soul!
Casey, take us there, bring it back!
Alright, come on now!*

And tell me now - How do I live without you
I want to know - How do I breathe without you
If you ever go - How will I ever, ever survive?

Oh, it's - it's done. Oh.

I'm A Member of the Midnight Crew

Jean Schwartz and William Jerome

I hate a moral coward, one who lacks a manly spark
I just detest a man afraid to go home in the dark
I spend my every evening where there's women, wine, and song
But like a man, I always bring my little wife along!

I'm a member of the Midnight Crew
I'm a night owl, a wise bird too
Home with the milk in the morning
Singing the same old song!
Rise with the moon, go to bed with the sun
Early to bed, and you'll miss all the fun
Bring your wife and trouble, it can never trouble you
Make her a member of the Midnight Crew!

The fun it doesn't stop 'til 12 on happy old Broadway
So what's the point of going home, until the break of day?
Now, something confidential, whisper not above a breath
I once went home at 2 AM, and scared my wife to death!

I'm a member of the Midnight Crew
I'm a night owl, a wise bird too
Home with the milk in the morning
Singing the same old song!
Rise with the moon, go to bed with the sun
Early to bed, and you'll miss all the fun
Bring your wife and trouble, it can never trouble you
Make her a member of the Midnight Crew!

I never shall forget the night I made six robbers run
Although I did not have a knife, a blackjack, or a gun
I proved myself a hero of a very high degree
I ran for home, and six of them, was running after me!

I'm a member of the Midnight Crew
I'm a night owl, a wise bird too
Home with the milk in the morning
Singing the same old song!
Rise with the moon, go to bed with the sun
Early to bed, and you'll miss all the fun
Bring your wife and trouble, it can never trouble you
Make her a member of the Midnight Crew!

Mister Bowman Tells You About The Squiddles

Michael Guy Bowman

Mister Bowman, can you tell us about the Squiddles?
Well of course, child!
Yay!

Let me tell you of the Squiddles who live below the sea
They love to sing and dance and play just like you and me
They're squishy little creatures with tentacles of joy
And adorable eyes that bring delight to every girl and boy

Not much is known about the Squiddles
At least on our behalf
And many wonder why it is they always seem to laugh
Do they know some kind of secret? Well, maybe, just in part
But any child knows the real answer
Deep within their heart!

They laugh because they love
They sing because they're free
They splash because they're safe and sound
Below the deep blue sea

They leap because they like you
They swim because they're swell
They smile because they have so many
Stories they like to tell

The Squiddles live in a magical land
Below the waves in castles of sand
If you listen close you can hear them make their plans
What kind of plans?
Happy Squiddle plans!

They kiss because they can't help it
They wiggle because why not!
They prance because they're oh so proud
Of all the friends they've got (Hey guys, how's it going?)

They jump because they're joyful
They giggle because they're glad
They squeal because in Squiddle Land
No one's ever sad!

All right, now we're going to do the whole song one more time, and this time I want everybody to join in. Parents, that means you too. If you don't know the words just look them up online, I'm sure they're there somewhere. Otherwise, sit real close to your television set and follow the bouncing ball and you're sure to be a winner! Are you ready, kids? All right, here it comes again. And a-one, and a-two, and a-one two three!

They laugh because they love
They sing because they're free
They splash because they're safe and sound
Below the deep blue sea

They leap because they like you
They swim because they're swell
They smile because they have so many
Stories they like to tell

The Squiddles live in a magical land
Below the waves in castles of sand
If you listen close you can hear them make their plans
What sort of plans?
Happy Squiddle plans!

They kiss because they can't help it
They wiggle because why not!
They prance because they're oh so proud
Of all the friends they've got

They jump because they're joyful
They giggle because they're glad
They squeal because in Squiddle Land
No one's ever sad!

I Don't Want To Miss A Thing

Diane Warren

I could stay awake just to hear you breathing
Watch you smile while you are sleeping
While you're far away and dreaming
I could spend my life in this sweet surrender
I could stay lost in this moment forever
Where every moment spent with you
Is a moment I treasure

I don't wanna close my eyes
I don't wanna fall asleep
'Cause I'd miss you, babe
And I don't wanna miss a thing
'Cause even when I dream of you
The sweetest dream could never do
I'd still miss you, babe
And I don't wanna miss a thing

Lying close to you, hearing your heart beating
And I'm wondering what you're seeing
While you're far away and dreaming
Then I kiss your eyes, and thank God we're together
I just wanna be with you
In this moment forever
Forever and ever

I don't wanna close my eyes
I don't wanna fall asleep
'Cause I'd miss you, babe
And I don't wanna miss a thing
'Cause even when I dream of you
The sweetest dream could never do
I'd still miss you, babe
And I don't wanna miss a thing

I don't wanna miss one smile
I don't wanna miss one kiss
I just wanna be with you
Right here, right now, just like this
I just wanna hold you close
Feel your heart so close to mine
And just stay right here in this moment
For the rest of time

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah!
I don't wanna close my eyes
I don't wanna fall asleep
'Cause I'd miss you, babe
And I don't wanna miss a thing
'Cause even when I dream of you
The sweetest dream could never do
I'd still miss you, babe
And I don't wanna miss a thing

I don't wanna close my eyes
I don't wanna fall asleep
'Cause I'd miss you, babe
And I don't wanna miss a thing
'Cause even when I dream of you
The sweetest dream could never do
I'd still miss you, babe
And I don't wanna miss a thing
Yeah, yeah, yeah

BOWMANSTUCK is the first-ever collection of all my tracks from the various Homestuck compilation albums dating as far back as 2009. This early yet essential chapter of my work as a musician began when I was drafted into the music team for Andrew Hussie's web comic / visual novel, Homestuck, which exploded in popularity during its original run from 2009 to 2016. Along with a team of dozens of talented musicians, we released a massive catalog of albums that served not only as the soundtrack to Homestuck's animations and interactive elements but as an expanded listening experience with hours of bonus content.

Included here are all the songs I produced for Homestuck Vol. 1 (2009), Homestuck Vol. 2 (2009), Homestuck Vol. 3 (2009), Midnight Crew: Drawing Dead (2010), Homestuck Vol. 4 (2010), Homestuck Vol. 5 (2010), Squiddies! (2010), Homestuck Vol. 6: Heir Transparent (2011), Homestuck Vol. 7: At the Price of Oblivion (2011), The Wanderers (2011), Homestuck Vol. 8 (2011), Homestuck Vol. 9 (2012), and Cherubim (2013). I have also included my stirring vocal performance on "Hardchorale" which was produced by Alex Rosetti and Toby Fox. All of these tracks were originally released by What Pumpkin, the official Homestuck music label.

For you collectors, I've also thrown in a few extras from various fan projects I took part in. "Mechanic Panic" appeared on the Homestuck Gaiden album Jailbreak Vol. 1 (2011), a tribute to Andrew Hussie's comic Jailbreak. "Waiting for Adventure" appeared on the album Sburb OST (2012), released by The Homestuck Fan Musicians. "Bro Hop" and "We Shall Not Cease From Exploration" were among the many previously unreleased songs meant for Homestuck that appeared on the album P[S] (2018), released by Casual Sunday.

The songs on this album are presented sequentially by release date with a slight exception for "Sburban Jungle", which was previewed in abridged form as "Sburban Jungle (Brief Mix)" on Homestuck Vol. 1 (2009). I've swapped its full version from Homestuck Vol. 4 (2010) to the opening spot and saved the short version for the last track to avoid repetition.

The journey does not stop here, True Bowlievers. My first solo album Mobius Trip and Hadron Kaleido (2011) was originally released by What Pumpkin and weaves the themes of Homestuck into a psychedelic rock / electronic concept album. I also returned to the "Sburban Jungle" theme on my song "Jungle Boogie", which was originally meant for Homestuck Vol. 10 (2016) but ultimately released on my own album Archive (2016). And of course, I was only one of many, many other musicians involved in Homestuck whose music you can discover.

While I've gone in all kinds of completely different directions since Homestuck, few experiences can compare to the mix of viral success and creative freedom we all had during those extraordinarily unusual years. The songs included are as often toweringly anthemic as they are incredibly silly, a testament to the wide-eyed millennial whimsy of an era when Internet culture took over real life. Cosplay went mainstream. I was crashing conventions with a guitar and leading hordes of weirdos in gray face paint to sing "How Do I Live" at the top of their lungs. The in-jokes had all finally spilled out.
